Advance Directives

An “Advance Directive” is a general form that refers to your oral and written instructions regarding your medical care in the event that you are or become unable to speak for yourself. Each state regulates the use of advance directives. There are two types of advance directives:

I have an Advance Directive _____yes _____no Copy provided _____yes _____no _____n/a

I would like additional information regarding advance directives. _____yes _____no

To obtain information on an advance directive, please contact your personal attorney. The Center will provide a summary brochure upon your request but your selection of an advance directive type requires validation from your personal attorney and their legal advice. The Center cannot offer legal advice regarding your choice of an advance directive.

It is the policy of Katy Surgery Center that regardless of the contents of your advance directive or instructions from your health care surrogate or attorney-in-fact, that if an adverse event occurs during your treatment at the Center, the clinical personnel at the Center will initiate resuscitative or other stabilizing measures and transfer the patient to an acute care hospital for further treatment and evaluation. At the acute care hospital, further treatment or withdrawal of treatment measures already begun will be conducted in accordance with your wishes, per advance directive or care power of attorney/health care surrogate.

Informed Consent

The procedures performed at Katy Surgery Center are of minimal risk and appropriate for an ambulatory care setting. Of course, no surgery is without risk. You, the patient and/or your designee, along with the surgeon, will have discussed the specific risks of the surgery, as well as the benefits of the surgery and/or other alternate treatment options, expected recovery time, discharge expectations etc. When you present to the Center for your procedure, you will be asked to sign a consent that attests to you being informed of these items by your surgeon. Please do not hesitate to ask for and receive answers to your questions prior to the date of your surgery. The patient is an integral part of the “informed consent” process, and will be actively involved in the validation/verification of the procedure, the anatomical site of the procedure, the surgeons name and other pertinent information that will fully inform him/her of what is being consented to.
